Organic Preschool

There's a new preschool opening up in Manhattan and it's organic. That's right organic.

Bamboo floors, low-flow toilets, puzzles made of wood not plastic and environmentally friendly wall paints. Yes, it does sound nicer than your house. But can you imagine what it's going to be like bringing in "special snack"? I wouldn't suggest goldfish in a plastic bag, more like steamed vegan vegetables on rice paper.

Le Petit Paradis is accepting applications now.
